

Center for Coaching Certification Partial Completion Policy and Process

If a coach training student completes part of a program, they will have up to one year to complete assignments for completion or transfer to a different class and finish the program.

If a coach training student withdraws from a program and requests a certificate for the hours completed, they will be provided with a certificate that includes the accredited IACET CEUs and ICF CCEs appropriate to the hours completed.